The Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR) is one of the Department's two internal investigative units. OPR investigates allegations of misconduct against Department attorneys relating to the exercise of their authority to investigate, litigate or provide legal advice. OPR also investigates allegations of misconduct by law enforcement personnel when they are related to allegations of misconduct by Department attorneys, and provides legal support to the Offices of Professional Responsibility of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Drug Enforcement Administration. Following its investigations, OPR reports its findings and conclusions to the Deputy Attorney General or other appropriate officials.
